

Strategic Agility

Presented by:

Francesca Gino

Professor of Business Administration
Harvard Business School

Francesca will guide you in ways to become a more strategically agile leader who can help your credit union compete and succeed, even in these uncertain times.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- » Strategic agility has four components: creativity, responsiveness, adaptability, and diversity.
- » Being agile means to be able to break rules constructively.
- » Strategically agile organizations are organizations where agile leaders operate.

TAKE ACTION

The following statements are provided for you to reflect on and identify next steps in your development.

- » Learn how to identify the dimensions on which you can be an agile thinker and leader.
- » Learn how to fight the status quo and hold onto your curiosity.
- » Understand the most common barriers agile leaders need to overcome.

